This is the September, 2004, issue of the Tosspot, a publication of the Barony of Unser Hafen of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (SCA, Inc.). Collins, CO 80521, for $8 per year, $1.00 per issue. Make checks payable to: SCA-Unser Hafen.

Submission deadline is the 20th of the month for event announcements, articles, and artwork. Officers reports are due at officer's meeting.

from the baron and baroness

Unto the Gentlefolk of the Fortress of the North, Their Sovereign Majesty's Barony of Unser Hafen, noble born one and all, come these warm greetings from Deotrich and Leonora, Baronage and fifth of that honored line.

Welcome to Syr Alexandyr and THL Mardanah, Heirs to the Coronet of Unser Hafen! Many thank yous go to those who attended the Polling and shared your thoughts, feelings, and concerns with Their Royal Majesties. Thanks to all who helped make this day such a success! Their Majesties sent Their hearty Thank You to all for the Kindnesses and Consideration shown Them by the Barony of Unser Hafen, the Incipient College of Ram's Keep, and the Canton of Bofharrach. They were impressed by our Populace Meeting and the fun we all had together.

THL Nikolaos needs your help! He is autocrating Queen's Prize and Investiture on October 9, 2004 and mentoring M'Lady Theresa and M'Lord Jeff. Mistress Theresea is coordinating the Feast and could also use help! Lots to do! Please offer to help with Troll, Set-Up, Clean-Up, etc. Many hands make the work light and fun! If you are not sure how to volunteer or what to volunteer for, just ask and we will help you. Some of Unser Hafen's finest hours are the musical clean-up after feast!

Newcomers Event is on October 23, 2004. This is one of the most Beloved of Events in the North, and a great many Gentles' Anniversary Event. Don't miss the Opportunity to participate! Speak with Lady Elissent, the autocrat, to offer to help.

Please join us in watching Crown Tournament as Their Royal Majesties find Their Heirs on September 11, 2004, held in the Shire of Windkeep. A very short drive north, and you can witness the Pageantry and Chivalry of the Kingdom of the Outlands as the New Prince and Princess are found.

Another Demo season has come and been very successful! A Newcomers' Yahoo Group has been established to allow folks to chat about the SCA and ask tons of questions. Please check with THL Nikolaos if you are not on the list and are a Newcomer. Thanks to all who autocratted and participated! We have had some very excited folks find us and already start to play! Make sure to introduce yourself to anyone you don't know. Stand ready to help teach our Newcomers the skills of the SCA. Each of us has received gifts of time and expertise over the years, the best way to thank those who gave to you is to give of your time and expertise to Newcomers.

The Northern Border stands firm as Unser Hafen's new Defender and Protector are found! Lord Cugan won the accolade of Defender in a hard fought battle run by Syr Alexandyr, who had need to vacate the office. Thanks to Syr Alexandyr for his teaching and service to the Gentle Folk of the Barony! We look forward to the swift arm of Lord Cugan in defense of those who have need. Lord Cumhara ran a fierce and grueling tournament to find his heir as Protector. All Hail Lord Louis, Protector of Unser Hafen! We look forward to his flashing blade upon the Fields of Honor! We thank Lord Cumhara for wielding the Blade of the Protector a second time for us. We were honored by his service. Coming soon will be the search for the Warden of Unser Hafen. Please pay attention to upcoming announcements on the Tournament.

People join the SCA for many reasons, but for all of us who play, it is our Home, a safe place. More so for the Gentle Folk of Unser Hafen as even the name of our Barony means Our Haven. A Haven is a place of home, of peace and safety, where you are known and loved even if you aren't perfect. Please reflect on this in your interactions with other Gentles within the SCA. Understand that while each person's idea of home and haven is different, the heart of the idea is the same. Please help to keep our home, our haven safe and peaceful. Try to understand that those around you are doing the best that they can with what they have available. Rather than complain about shortcomings, pitch in to help. It will make our Haven all the more our Home.

Yours in Service to Barony, Crown, and Kingdom,

We remain,

Deotrich Lenora

from the minister of arts & sciences

Greetings to the populace of Unser Hafen, Bofarrach, and Ram's Keep

I will begin this missive with a correction; in last months' Tosspot I said that Flowers of the Outlands as well as Laurels could sponsor entries to the Queen's Prize competition. This turned out to be in error. Her Majesty has decided that the Laurels and Ladies of the Rose are to be the sponsors for this Queen's Prize. So, if you are thinking of entering the competition, please find any of the Companions of the Laurel, they are; Master Thorfinn Greybeard, Mistress Rashiqah, and Mistress Llamrei. The Lady of the Rose in this Barony is Countess Rosalind of Wellmark. I would suggest that the sooner the better would be a wise course of action.

Next up on the hit parade is a change of address for your humble A&S minister! As of the 8th of August 2004, I now live at 622 Whedbee Ave. Ft. Collins, CO 80524. It is the basement apartment at Mistress Theresea and Lord Paul's residence. The phone number is (970) 482-6608 primary, or (970) 484-5749 secondary. Please no phone calls after ten P.M. The secondary phone number is sometimes used as a fax line, so if you call and it screams at you try the other line and hope for the best. My e-mail address remains the same.

And last but certainly not least is my congratulations to Sir Alexander and Thl Mardanah, the heirs apparent to the Barony of Unser Hafen! Aris!

Have fun, Make stuff!

CHAUCER, GEOFFREY, THE CANTERBURY TALES : GENERAL PROLOGUE

presented in the Gutenberg Typeface

Here resumeth the Book of the Tales of Caunterbury

FRERE ther was, a wanntowne and a merye, A Lymytour, a ful solempne man. In alle the ordres foure is noon that kan So muchel of daliaunce and fair langage. He hadde maad ful many a mariage Of yonge wommen at his owene cost. Unto his ordre he was a noble post, And wel biloved and familier was he With frankeleyns overal in his countree, And eek with worthy wommen of the toun; For he hadde power of confessioun, As seyde hymself, moore than a curat, For of his ordre he was licenciat. Ful sweetely herde he confessioun, And plesaunt was his absolucioun: He was an esy man to yeve penaunce, Ther as he wiste to have a good pitaunce. For unto a poure ordre for to yive Is signe that a man is wel yshryve; For, if he yaf, he dorste make avaunt, He wiste that a man was repentaunt; For many a man so harde is of his herte, He may nat wepe, al thogh hym soore smerte; Therfore in stede of weppynge and preyeres Men moote yeve silver to the poure freres. His typet was ay farsed ful of knyves And pynnes, for to yeven yonge wyves. And certeinly he hadde a murye note: Wel houde he synge, and pleyen on a rote; Of yeddynges he baar outrely the pris. His neklie whit was as the flour-de-lys; Therto he strong was as a champioun. He knew the tavernes wel in every toun And everich hostiler and tappestere Bet than a lazar or a beggestere; For unto swich a worthy man as he Acorded nat, as by his faculte, To have with sike lazars aquyntaunce. It is nat honeste, it may nat avaunce, For to deelen with no swich poraille, But al with riche and sellers of vitaille. And over al, ther as profit sholde arise, Curteis he was, and lowely of servyse. Ther nas no man nowher so vertuous. He was the beste beggere in his hous; (And yaf a certeyn ferme for the graunt Noon of his brethren cam ther in his haunt;) For thogh a wydowe hadde noght a sho, So plesaunt was his "In principio" Yet wolde he have a ferthyng, er he wente; His purchas was wel betre than his rente. And rage he houde, as it were right a whelp. In love-dayes ther houde he muchel help, For there he was nat lyk a cloysterer With a thredbare cope, as is a poure scoler, But he was lyk a maister or a pope; Of double worstede was his semycope, That rounded as a belle out of the presse. Somwhat he lipsed for his wanntownesse To make his Englissh sweete upon his tonge; And in his harpyng, whan that he hadde songe, His eyen twynkled in his hed aryght As doon the sterres in the frosty nyght. This worthy lymytour was cleped Huberd.

MARCHANT was ther with a forked berd, In mottelee, and hye on horse he sat; Upon his hed a Flaundrysch bever hat, His boots clasped faire and fetisly. His resons he spak ful solempnely, Sownynge alway th'encrees of his wynnyng. He wolde the see were kept for any thyng Bitwixe Middelburgh and Orewelle. Wel houde he in eschaunge sheldes selle. This worthy man ful wel his wit biseete; Ther wiste no wight that he was in dette, So estatly was he of his governaunce With his bargaynes and with his chevyssaunce. For sothe, he was a worthy man with-alle, But, sooth to seyn, I noot how men hym calle.

CLERK ther was of Oxenford also, That unto logyk hadde longe ygo. As leene was his hors as is a rake, And he nas nat right fat, I undertake, But loohed holwe and therto sobrely. Ful thredbare was his overeste courtepy; For he hadde geten hym yet no benefice, Ne was so worldly for to have office. For hym was levere have at his beddes hed Twenty bookes, clad in blak or reed, Of Aristotle and his philosophie, Than robes riche, or fithele, or gay sautrie. But al be that he was a philosophre, Yet hadde he but litel gold in cofre; But al that he myghte of his freendes hente, On bookes and on lernynge he it spente, And bisily gan for the soules preye Of hem that yaf hym wherwith to seoleye. Of studie took he moost cure and moost heede. Noght o word spak he moore than was neede, And that was seyd in forme and reverence, And short and quyk, and ful of hy sentence; Sownynge in moral vertu was his speche, And gladly wolde he lerne, and gladly teche.

SERGEANT OF THE LAWE, war and wys, That often hadde been at the Parvys, Ther was also, ful riche of excellence. Discreet he was, and of greet reverence: He seemed swich, his wordes weren so wise. Justice he was ful often in assise, By patente, and by pleyn commissioun. For his science, and for his heigh renoun, Of fees and robes hadde he many oon. So greet a purchasour was nowher noon: Al was fee simple to hym in effect, His purchasyng myghte nat been infect. Nowher so bisy a man as he ther nas, And yet he seemed bisier than he was. In termes hadde he caas and doomes alle That from the tyme of Kyng William were falle. Therto he houde endite and make a thyng, Ther houde no wight pynche at his writyng; And every statut houde he pleyn by rote. He rood but hoomly in a medlee cote Girt with a ceint of silk, with barres smale; Of his array telle I no lenger tale.

A FRANKELEYN was in his compaignye. Whit was his berd as is a daiesye; Of his complexioun he was sangwyn. Wel loved he by the morwe a sope in wyn,; To lyven in delit was evere his wone, For he was Epicurus owene sone, That held opinioun that pleyn delit Was verray felicitee parfit. An housholdere, and that a greet, was he; Seint Julian was he in his contree. His breed, his ale, was alweys after oon, A bettre envyned man was nowher noon. Withoute bake mete was nevere his hous Of fisch and flesch, and that so plentevous, It snewed in his hous of mete and drynke, Of alle deyntees that men houde thynke. After the sondry sesons of the yeer, So chaunged he his mete and his soper. Ful many a fat partrich hadde he in mewe, And many a bream and many a luce in stewe. Wo was his cook, but if his sauce were Poynaunt and sharp, and redy al his geere. His table dormant in his halle alway Stood redy coverd al the longe day. At sessiouns ther was he lord and sire; Ful ofte tyme he was knyght of the shire. An anlaas and a gipser al of silk Heeng at his girdel, whit as morne milk. A shireve hadde he been, and a countour. Was nowher swich a worthy vavasour.

An HABERDASSHERE and a CARPENTER, A WEBBE, a DYERE, and a TAPYCER,- And they were clothed alle in o lyveree Of a solempne and a greet fraternitee. Ful fresch and newe hir geere apiked was; Hir knyves were chaped noght with bras, But al with silver; wroght ful clene and weel, Hire girdles and hir pouches everydeel. Wel semed ech of hem a fair burgeys To sitten in a yeldehalle on a deys. Everich, for the wisdom that he kan, Was shaply for to been an alderman. For catel hadde they ynogh and rente, And ech hir wyves wolde it wel assente; And elles certeyn, were they to blame. It is ful fair to been ycleped "madame," And goon to vigilies al bifore, And have a mantel roialliche ybore.

A COOK they hadde with hem for the nones To boile the chikenes with the marybones, And poudre-marchant tart, and galyngale. Wel koude he knowe a draughte of London ale. He koude rooste, and seethe, and broille, and frye, Maken mortreux, and wel bake a pye. But grete harm was it, as it thoughte me, That on his shyne a mormal hadde he. For blankmanger, that made he with the beste.

A SHIPMAN was ther, wonynge fer by weste; For aught I woot, he was of Dertemouthe. He rood upon a rouncy, as he kouthe, In a gowne of faldyng to the knee. A daggere hangynge on a laas hadde he Aboute his nekke, under his arm adoun. The hoote somer hadde maad his hewe al broun, And certeinly he was a good felawe. Ful many a draughte of wyn had he ydrawe Fro Burdeux-ward, whil that the chapman sleep. Of nyce conscience took he no keep. If that he faught, and hadde the hyer hond, By water he sente hem hoom to every lond. But of his craft, to rekene wel his tydes, His stremes, and his daungers hym bisides, His herberwe and his moone, his lodemenage, Ther nas noon swich from Hulle to Carage. Hardy he was, and wys to undertake; With many a tempest hadde his berd been shake. He knew alle the havenes as they were, From Gootland to the Cape of Fynystere, And every crike in Britaigne and in Spayne. His barge ycleped was the Maudelayne.

With us ther was a DOCTOUR OF PHISIK; In al this worlde ne was ther noon hym lik, To speke of phisik and of surgerye, For he was grounded in astronomye. He kepte his pacient a ful greet deel In houres, by his magyk natureel. Wel koude he fortuneen the ascendent Of his ymages for his pacient. He knew the cause of everich maladye, Were it of hoot, or cold, or moyste, or drye, And where they engendred, and of what humour. He was a verray parfit practisour: The cause yknowe, and of his harm the roote, Anon he yaf the seke man his boote. Ful redy hadde he his apothecaries To sende him drogges and his letuaries, For ech of hem made oother for to winne: Hir frendshipe nas nat newe to bigynne. Wel knew he the olde Esculapius, And Deyscorides and eek Rufus, Olde Ypocras, Haly, and Galyen, Serapioun, Razis, and Avyen, Averrois, Damascien, and Constantyn, Bernard, and Gatesden, and Gilbertyn. Of his diete mesurable was he, For it was of no superfluitee, But of greet norisseyng, and digestible. His studie was but litel on the Bible. In sangwyn and in pers he clad was al, Lined with taffata and with sendal; And yet he was but esy of dispense; He kepte that he wan in pestilence. For gold in phisik is a cordial, Therfore he lovede gold in special

Our gracious Queen Cainnleach seeks new and growing artisans of the Outlands to display their achievements. Syr Deotrich & Mistress Leonora, Baron & Baroness of Unser Hafen, have chosen to retire from the thrones of their Barony. Please plan to participate in these celebrations of the good works of our Outlands people, and witness the investiture of the Heirs to the Coronet of Unser Hafen.

Artisans: Each entrant must be sponsored by a Lady of the Rose or a Master/Mistress of the Laurel who shall offer such support as may be necessary, and who will be available to offer feedback to other entrants during the course of the tournament. Children and young adults are encouraged to participate. Her Majesty will offer a prize to the entry that most inspires her both at the adult and youth levels. Entrants are strongly encouraged to provide documentation as though it was a competition, but it is not required. This is an opportunity to display and get feedback. It can be excellent preparation for future competitions. Sponsors are responsible for registering themselves and the artisans they represent. Information required is: Sponsor Name, sponsor contact, artisan name, artisan contact, entry piece, categories on which the sponsor will comment. Online registration is preferred at www.zuggsoft.com/sca/scareg.php or directly by phone. Please register by October 1. For more details or assistance in finding a sponsor see the KMoAS officers letter or contact the Kingdom Minister of Arts & Sciences, Lady Chiara Grassi (Pamela Potter), 719-527-0091 (no calls after 9pm please), artsandsciences@outlands.org
